

'A Drinking Song'.

Wine comes in at the mouth
And love comes in at the eye;
That's all we shall know for truth
Before we grow old and die.

I lift the glass to my mouth,
I look at you, and I sigh.

W. B. Yeats

Wine has this particularity of enhancing flavours in all things. It stimulates the 5 senses that your mouth feels. Sweetness, Sourness, Saltiness, Bitterness, Umami. It creates a connection with your nose that will develop through your own olfactory memories.

We can say that scent, emotion, and memory are intertwined.

Our selecting process comes from a perpetual tasting from 4 to 5 of our team members, as all have different experiences & 'there's no accounting for taste'.

Sometimes vintages change so we are sampling them as every year could be different.

Some of the wines we have might greatly gain from an early opening or decanting.

Not that the wine will be unenjoyable if not, but the optimum experience of it might happen toward the end of the bottle.

So, we invite you to pre-order the ones we highlighted on the list, to give your wine time.

The symbol for the wines we recommend giving time to is the  Daur da Bláo, the 'cláirseach' of 'An Dagda' (high priest druid from the tribe of the Tuatha de Danaan, legend has it he had governance over the weather, seasons and time through his magic harp).
